

Museum on the Mall. Without Ms.' coverage and advocacy, we might still be fighting.

Women comprise half the population. But we get nowhere near half the attention on critical issues. Most other magazines and new outlets swoop in to cover monumental women's issues like the rollback of Roe v. Wade. But Ms. is there every day to cover issues of importance to women and to shine the light on women's often-hidden contributions to all fields.

Today, the Feminist Majority—the magazine's longest-serving publisher—is proudly maintaining Ms.'s 50-year leadership role in shaping and meeting the feminist agenda.

I join millions of women worldwide in recognizing the extraordinary accomplishments and contributions of Ms. Magazine over the past 50 years, and in wishing them every success in the next 50. Because Ms. isn't just a magazine. It's a movement.

HONORING PAUL AND BETTY
WILSON

HON. LOIS FRANKEL
OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, November 3, 2022

Ms. LOIS FRANKEL of Florida. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Paul and Betty Wilson, who are celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary on November 3, 2022. Paul and Betty live in my hometown, West Palm Beach, Florida and are loved members of our community.

Paul and Betty met at a farm dance in the small town of Whiteland, Indiana. They planned a date that required an hour drive to meet up. On the way, Paul got a flat tire and was late. Betty thought he wasn't going to show up.

Paul not only showed up, he and Betty have been showing up for each other for 60 years. And along the way came five children, many grandchildren and great-grandchildren, who fill their lives with joy.

I wish Paul and Betty a very happy anniversary and best wishes for many more blissful years together.

CELEBRATING DAVIDSON
COUNTY'S BICENTENNIAL

HON. TED BUDD

OF NORTH CAROLINA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, November 3, 2022

Mr. BUDD. Madam Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Davidson County for celebrating its 200th anniversary.

Geographically located in central North Carolina, Davidson County's residents have had an immense impact on the state's development throughout the years. Nestled in the Yadkin River Valley, it was established in 1822 when historic Rowan County was divided along the banks of the Yadkin. The new county was named after Revolutionary War Brigadier General William Lee Davidson, a patriot who was killed at the Battle of Cowan's Ford fighting for our nation's independence. In the centuries both before and since, the land has been the home of other American icons, from legendary frontiersman Daniel Boone to NASCAR Hall of Famer Richard Childress.

The people of Davidson County are fortunate to have a proud history of agriculture and textiles that formed the bedrock of their economy. Known as the "Barbeque Capital of the World", Davidson hosts the annual Lexington Barbeque Festival which attracts as many as 200,000 visitors to the area each year. The County is also now home to robust sectors in modern manufacturing and is well-positioned for future success. Communities like Davidson County are what makes the Old North State the best place to live, work, and raise a family.

Madam Speaker, please join me in congratulating the people of Davidson County on their bicentennial anniversary. It is my sincere hope that the county will continue to prosper over the next two centuries and beyond.

IN MEMORY OF DENISE BACON

HON. SUZANNE BONAMICI

OF OREGON
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, November 3, 2022

Ms. BONAMICI. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of Denise Bacon, and to recognize her many years of service to the residents of Newberg, Oregon.

Denise was an advocate, active community member, and treasured friend and colleague to many. As a longtime city council member, Denise was a champion for families and worked tirelessly to better the lives of the residents of Newberg, especially its most vulnerable community members. In times of crisis and stability, Denise was a leader, a bridge-builder, and a policymaker with deeply-rooted integrity. Yamhill County is a better place because of Denise's devotion to improving the lives of those around her.

I express my sincere condolences to Denise's family, colleagues, and all those she served. We can honor her legacy by building kinder communities and leading with respect. Let us continue to serve others in her memory.

HONORING THE HEROIC LIFE AND SERVICE OF HOWARD RICHARD
"DICK" NEAHR

HON. ELISE M. STEFANIK

OF NEW YORK
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, November 3, 2022

Ms. STEFANIK. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and service of United States Army Private First Class, Howard Richard "Dick" Neahr.

Dick was born on July 8, 1924, in Hagedorn Mills, New York. After attending Galway School, he enlisted in the United States Army on April 8, 1943. He attended boot camp at Camp Croft and was soon sent to Liverpool England and Northern Ireland to prepare for the D-Day invasion. Dick proudly served with the 409th Infantry Regiment 103rd Division. After the D-Day invasion was launched, Dick fought valiantly across France and Luxembourg. In January 1945, during the Battle of the Bulge, Dick was shot in the leg and spent eight weeks in the hospital recovering. Despite his wounds, Dick returned to France to continue fighting for democratic values and freedom. Dick served all throughout Europe including in the Ardennes, Central Europe, and the Rhineland.

Dick rose to the rank of Private First Class and was then discharged from the United States Army in September 1945. Dick was awarded many medals for his selfless service including the Bronze Star, Purple Heart, European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign Medal, and the Good Conduct Medal. Additionally, he was awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge and the WWII Victory Medal.

After his discharge, Dick worked on his family's farm delivering milk and milling trees. After his military service, Dick continued to dedicate his life to serving the people of New York and worked at the New York State Thruway Authority for 21 years. In addition to serving his community, Dick enjoyed bunting and spending time with his wife, Sylvia Thorton, and their 7 children.

Throughout his life, Dick showed exceptional dedication to his country and community. On behalf of the 21st District of New York, I am honored to recognize the incredible life of Howard Richard "Dick" Neahr and thank him for his service to the country.

REMEMBERING THERESA "ANNE"
MCSORLEY MURPHY

HON. JOHN GARAMENDI

OF CALIFORNIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, November 3, 2022

Mr. GARAMENDI. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and lasting memory of Theresa "Anne" McSorley Murphy. Passing away at the age of 100, Mrs. Murphy leaves behind an indelible legacy through her never-failing grace, kindness, thoughtfulness, and warm personality. She will be greatly missed by her friends and family, but her legacy of love and kindness will persist.

Mrs. Murphy was born on March 23, 1922, in Mokelumne Hill, California, to Thomas Edward and Kathryn Margaret Pitto McSorley. After their mother's tragic passing in childbirth, Mrs. Murphy and her beloved sister, Mary Jane, were raised single-handedly by their father, Thomas. Despite the accompanying challenges, Thomas was never too busy to spend time with his daughters; Mrs. Murphy fondly recounted her father reading to the girls nightly. The sisters became inseparable growing up—a bond they shared for the rest of their lives.

After graduating from Calaveras Union High School in 1939, Mrs. Murphy went on to attend the University of California Berkeley and Munson Business College in San Francisco. On May 2, 1942, Mrs. Murphy married John Raymond "Jack" Murphy, son of Raymond and Alma (Poe) Murphy, in San Andreas, California. Shortly after their wedding, Mr. Murphy enlisted in the Navy and was stationed at Treasure Island in San Francisco. With the onset of World War II, the couple moved throughout the United States per Mr. Murphy's assignments from the Navy. In 1944, when Mrs. Murphy was seven months pregnant with their first child, Kathleen Anne, Mr. Murphy was commissioned to Southern France. Ceaseless in her resiliency, Mrs. Murphy returned home to Mokelumne Hill to live with her father and began raising their daughter alone.
